Celebrating 75 years of lasting traditions St. Rose of Lima Church #SRL75

One of the greatest blessings of my life has been to be a member of the St. Rose of Lima family. The education that I received at the school, the spiritual guidance provided by the amazing priests and sisters, and the love and fellowship of the community have all made me who I am today. When life brought us back to Miami Shores after many years away, our son was immediately welcomed by the school and parish community, and he was able to experience the same excellent education and faith-filled parish that I had myself. I am eternally grateful to my parents, who bought their house on 105th street because my mother wanted to be next door to St. Rose of Lima, and all of those priests, sisters and lay people who give so much of themselves for the good of the Church, parishioners and the larger community. Congratulations, and may God continue to bless St. Rose of Lima.
