Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

FOLLOWING CHRIST

If you've ever had an unpleasant but somewhat amusing practical joke played on you, then you have some understanding of how Jeremiah feels today when he tells God "good one—you duped me." We can almost see him shaking his head with a bit of a rueful smile, but an angry undertone in his voice. In similar fashion, Peter thinks Jesus is "duping" him when Jesus starts to explain that being Messiah means suffering and dying, and being a follower of the Messiah means taking up a cross and doing the same. Jeremiah tries to deny God's will for him by trying to shut up; Peter—who has just been made the foundation of the church—out and out denies the teaching of Jesus, for which he is named "Satan" today. Fortunately for us, Jeremiah comes to realize that to have the word of God placed in your heart means that it will be futile to try and keep silent, even if it means scorn and derision from those around you. Luckily Peter ultimately returned to the faith he professed in last week's Gospel, and came to understand our need as baptized followers of Christ to follow in his way, even when it means following him to our very death.

Godsquad

What is G-dsquad?

In 2006, four women who had recently made their Emmaus Retreat decided they had two things in common – they were all on fire for Jesus and they all loved music. Why not make some joyful noise together at an upcoming social for Emmaus women? Everyone had such a great time that night that the four singer/musicians decided to make it official and become the Women's Emmaus Band. An all female band, their mission is to bring the good news of the gospel to people through Christian Contemporary music, lifting audiences up with praise and entertainment a.k.a. "Praise-o-tainment!" Over the years, the band expanded and evolved into a ministry that today continues to raise the roof for Jesus at various fundraisers, carnivals, retreats, socials and special masses throughout the community.

Please join us on Saturday, September 9th, 2017 at the spaghetti dinner where G-dsquad will be performing for the first time of the school year. Come together in fellowship for a delicious dinner and "praise-o-tainment"!

Tickets are $7 for dinner, dessert, and beverage. Dinner and show will be held in the auditorium immediately following 5:00 mass.

Hope to see you there!

ARE YOU SEEKING SPIRITUAL GUIDANCE OR DIRECTION?

Within each of us lies the desire to find meaning beyond the moment ... to discover our true selves ... to grow closer to God. Spiritual direction is a graced way to explore that deeper connection with God by reflecting deeply on your everyday experiences in the light of Scripture and prayer. This ministry is not about problem-solving or therapy, and not about being "directed". Rather, it is a shared journey of encouragement to grow in relationship with God, self, others and creation. If you are seeking such a journey, contact Sr. Jo email (jostreva@srlschool.com) or call the Parish office at 305-758-0539 for an appointment.

BEREAVEMENT GROUP

We meet the 1st and 3rd Wednesday in the parish office workroom from Noon to 3:00 pm. Please join us. Contact Judy Ernst @ 561-715-7577. We are in need of yarn donations.

+ Thomas G. Wenski
Archbishop of Miami

Our prayers and hearts go out to the families that have lost loved ones along with those who have lost homes and businesses, and their sense of peace and normalcy due to Hurricane Harvey.

To assist our brothers and sisters in the many areas affected by "Harvey" I am asking each of the 109 Catholic parishes and missions in the Archdiocese of Miami to take up an emergency collection this weekend, September 2nd and 3rd.

The financial donations received from this special collection will help support the humanitarian and recovery efforts of the US bishops and Catholic Charities. Your generosity will also help provide pastoral and rebuilding support to the impacted dioceses.

You may also mail your donation to: Archdiocese of Miami, 9401 Biscayne Blvd., Miami Shores, FL 33138; please add Hurricane relief in the memo line.

The Archdiocese of Miami cannot accept donations of food, water, clothing, building supplies, or other items. Thank you for your kindness.

SHARING FRANCISCAN SPIRITUALITY - BY SR. JO.

Today's gospel helps us to understand why Jesus ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Messiah! (Mt 21:20) Certainly, Jesus knew that his closest friends needed to learn and experience more of his mission. When Jesus spoke about his future suffering, death and rising, Peter objected but Jesus denounced this reaction by spelling out the conditions for authentic discipleship: What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? (Mt 21:26) Let us support each other as faithful followers of Jesus by allowing the Holy Spirit to guide our words and actions toward a Christ-centered life of selfless love and humble service.

*“Sing praise to the Lord, you faithful;
give thanks to God’s holy name.”*

Psalm 30: 5

As we begin a new choir season, we extend an invitation to all members of our Saint Rose of Lima family to join one of our choirs.

The Church calls music a “necessary” part of the liturgy because it helps the assembly pray together more vibrantly (Catechism of the Catholic Church #1156; cf Sacrosanctum Concilium 112). If it is done well, this special form of prayer unites the whole assembly together in one voice, and becomes a window onto divine beauty.

Like our community, the Music Ministry at Saint Rose of Lima Church is diverse. We are made up of professional musicians and volunteers, children, teens and adults, who strive to enliven the hearts of all who come seeking a glimpse of that divine beauty. Our mission is to make known the majesty and beauty of God; through every note played and every word sung, we proclaim His glory with glad voices. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we aim to reach the hearts of all who enter our church, and draw them closer to God through more active participation in the liturgy.

Children’s Choir - open to all children of our parish and school community in grades 2 and up.

Rehearsals: Wednesdays from 3:45pm to 4:30pm (every 3rd Wednesday from 1:00pm to 2:00pm)

Ministry: Sundays 9:00am mass

Adult Choir (English) - open to all adults and young adults of our parish and school community.

No prior experience in singing or reading music necessary, but men and women who can learn and hold harmonies are especially needed.

Rehearsals: Wednesdays from 7:30pm to 9:00pm

Ministry: Sundays 11:00am mass

Spanish Choir - open to all adults, young adults, and children in the Hispanic community of Saint Rose.

Rehearsals: Sundays from 12:15pm to 12:50pm

Ministry: Sundays 1:00pm mass

Contemporary Choir - open to adults and young adults of our community by audition.

Rehearsals: Sundays 4:00pm to 4:50pm

Ministry: Sunday's 5:00pm mass
