ARCHDIOCESE OF MIAMI DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

Every moment is a gift from God. How do we use the hours He has given us? Consider volunteering in our parish ministries, spending time in prayer and worship, or simply being present to those who need our care and attention.

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions."
Luke 12:15

Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our "invisible" gifts like love, mercy, and forgiveness. True joy comes from "emptying" ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living Stewardship in a grateful and generous lifestyle. Become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."

Cada momento es un regalo de Dios. ¿Cómo utilizamos las horas que Él nos ha dado? Considere la posibilidad de ofrecerse como voluntario en nuestros ministerios parroquiales, dedicar tiempo a la oración y el culto, o simplemente estar presente para aquellos que necesitan nuestro cuidado y atención.

"Estén atentos y cuidense de toda forma de avaricia; porque aun cuando alguien tenga abundancia, su vida no consiste en sus bienes." Lucas 12:15

Jesús nos muestra que nuestra verdadera alegría viene de los dones "invisibles" como el amor, la misericordia y el perdón. La verdadera alegría viene de "vaciar" nuestro ser, de dar más en lugar de siempre recibir. No somos llamados a acumular sino a compartir. La verdadera alegría viene de un estilo de vida agradecido y generoso; de transformarse en más "centrados en Dios" y menos en "nosotros mismos".

LIVE THE LITURGY

Jesus warns us that at any moment we can be called before God to face judgment. When we are, our life will be measured not in dollars or accomplishments, but in what matters to God. What do we have to show for our time spent on earth?
@LPI

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

Jesús nos advierte que en cualquier momento podemos ser llamados ante Dios para enfrentar el juicio. Cuando lo seamos, nuestra vida no se medirá en dólares o logros, sino en lo que le importa a Dios. ¿Qué tenemos que mostrar por el tiempo que pasamos en la Tierra?

MISSION COOPERATION WEEKEND 2025

At all the masses on the weekend of August 9-10, 2025

we will be hosting a missionary from the Diocese of Kohima, India

The Diocese of Kohima, covering the entire state of Nagaland, at the extreme northeast of India bordering Myanmar, is relatively new mission territory. The diocese is inhabited by 17 major tribes of Mongoloid race, who are collectively known as “Nagas” each having its own distinct dialect, traditions and customs. The Naga culture is rich in values like communitarian living, hospitality, openness, hard work, sincerity, etc.

The Catholic Church began its mission after the Second World War by helping to run the first government hospital, built by the British government as a reward for helping during the Second World War.

Two Sisters and a chaplain who came from Spain were forbidden to teach the Catholic faith, yet they preached it secretly and reaped its first fruits with the baptism in 1952 before they left the place. The sisters told us that they used to bury small crosses and medals as they visited villages hoping for the growth of the Catholic faith. That was symbolic implanting of the Catholic faith, growing into fullness in the course of time.

Today, there are over 63,000 Catholics in the diocese. It is a fertile ground for vocations to priesthood and religious life. There is much scope for the growth of the Church.

Now, the specific project for the mission appeal is to build a shelter home for the children affected by HIV Aids or children whose parents died of HIV Aids.

As you know, the so called golden triangle of drug smuggling starts from Cambodia, Thailand, Myanmar and passes through Northeast to rest of the world. Naturally, there many people addicted to drugs and consequently affected by HIV Aids. Many young people die, leaving the children orphans. In the diocese, the Carmelite Sisters take these children and try to provide them with an education and settle them in life. Now, we would like to build a decent shelter home for these orphan children - a place to sleep - dormitory, study hall for study, refectory, kitchen and toilet facilities. These children are given opportunities for education and gradually settle in life. The whole shelter home will cost about thirty to forty thousand ($30,000-$40,000) USD.

The money from the mission appeal this year will go to build a shelter home. Therefore, we appeal to your generosity so that these children may have decent living conditions and settle well in life.

We thank you very sincerely in anticipation for your generous help.
