ARCHDIOCESE OF MIAMI DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

Advent invites us to prepare our hearts for Christ’s coming. Stewardship helps us do just that, by focusing on others, sharing what we have, and trusting that our giving prepares the way for something holy. Stewardship prepares more than just our hearts, it prepares the world for Christ.

“Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come..” (MATTHEW 24:42)

People who have health problems or near-death experiences generally have a greater appreciation for each day as it is a gift from our Lord. The rest of us usually take it for granted that we will be here tomorrow. However, when you begin to look at each day as a gift, you will notice all the little miracles that happen daily and begin to see God’s active presence in your life. You will grow in gratitude, each day, for all that you have received.

El Adviento nos invita a preparar nuestros corazones para la llegada de Cristo. La mayordomía nos ayuda a hacerlo, centrándonos en los demás, compartiendo lo que tenemos y confiando en que nuestras ofrendas preparan el camino para algo sagrado. La mayordomía prepara más que solo nuestros corazones, prepara el mundo para Cristo.

“¡Por lo tanto, estén atentos! Porque no saben que día vendrá nuestro Señor.” (MATEO 24:42)

Las personas que tienen problemas de salud o experiencias cercanas a la muerte suelen apreciar más cada día, ya que lo consideran un regalo de nuestro Señor. El resto de nosotros solemos dar por sentado que mañana seguiremos aquí. Sin embargo, cuando empiezas a ver cada día como un regalo, te das cuenta de todos los pequeños milagros que ocurren a diario y empiezas a ver la presencia activa de Dios en tu vida. Cada día crecerás en gratitud por todo lo que has recibido.

LIVE THE LITURGY

"You do not know on which day your Lord will come," Jesus says. He is reminding us that we do not know the mind of God. But we do know the heart of God, and we know that it is filled with mercy for those who heed the warning: Stay awake! @LPI

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

"Vosotros no sabéis qué día vendrá vuestro Señor", dice Jesús. Él nos está recordando que no conocemos la mente de Dios. Pero sí conocemos el corazón de Dios, y sabemos que está lleno de misericordia para aquellos que prestan atención a la advertencia: ¡Mantente despierto! @LPI

ON GIVING TUESDAY

During the month of November, we are especially called to reflect on the goodness of God in our lives.

This is the month when we celebrate Thanksgiving and reflect on how this gratitude in our lives calls us to express generosity to God and others.

Again, this year our parish will participate in the iGiveCatholic program. This is a nationwide program that invites all Catholics in the United States to make a gift to their parish as a sign of their gratitude to God for the gift of their Catholic faith specifically as seen in their parish.

The annual tradition of Giving Tuesday is 12.2.25.

This year please consider a donation to St. Rose of Lima Church. We kindly ask for donations to support these important improvements which include: replacing the church doors with impact doors, replace the existing church roof, upgrade the church sound system.

Preparations are underway and the carnival committee could use some additional support. This is a long standing tradition bringing our families and friends together for delicious food, fun, games, rides, and community involvement.

This event is a huge undertaking and requires 5,000 man hours to make it a success. In addition to time, monetary donations and donated items are also major contributors.

100% of funds raised at the Carnival go directly to the school and parish to be used to fund school resources, technology, and capital improvements.

Each member of our community should take great pride in becoming involved.

This event cannot happen without your help.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

A few years ago, my house was broken into on Super Bowl Sunday. Turns out, it's a great day for burglars. If the TV isn't on, people are probably watching the game somewhere else, so ... easy pickins'. I'll never forget walking into my bedroom and realizing someone had been there. My stuff was thrown all over the floor. The closet was torn apart. It was disorienting and disturbing — someone had invaded the space I thought was secure. After that, I bought an alarm system. And every Super Bowl Sunday since, I'm extra careful to lock the doors and keep the lights on. That experience made me more alert. Not scared. Just attentive. That's much like the spiritual place Jesus wants us to be on this first Sunday of Advent. He doesn't start the season with soft candlelight and cozy manger scenes. He starts with two brutal images: a flood and a thief. In other words, chaos and violation. Why? Because life will flood us. Chaos will come. And in the midst of it, Christ will come like a thief — not to steal from us, but to steal us back. He is the intruder we should want. The one who breaks in, not to ransack, but to rescue. Christ presents himself as the thief but also the new Noah. He builds the ark of the Church to carry us through the flood. And he invites us to join him. How? By participating fully in our parishes. By making our homes places of prayer. By guarding our hearts with truth. By refusing to let spiritual complacency leave us exposed. By repentance. This Advent, don't just stay vaguely "awake." Prepare. Build. Watch. The flood will come. But so will he.

— Father John Muir ©LPI

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

El Adviento es un tiempo litúrgico de mucha esperanza. Hoy damos comienzo al ciclo A, y será el Evangelio de Mateo el que nos ayude a caminar durante este tiempo de gracia. Mateo, llamado también Leví, fue uno de los que Jesús quiso tener entre sus doce apóstoles. Él nos ayudará a ver que la esperanza está más cerca que nunca; que el anuncio de paz consiste en: Estén alerta, no se duerman, vigilen hasta entrada la noche. “Por eso estén despiertos, porque no saben en qué día vendrá el Señor” (Mateo 24:42). Un año más ha llegado, y se nos invita no a tener miedo, sino más bien a tener la intención de despertar, prestar atención y velar, para descubrir y seguir cómo será el paso de Dios en mi vida en este Adviento. Esperanza y vigilia es lo que la Iglesia nos propone en este jubileo, y el Adviento es el momento de estar despiertos, como los pastores que supieron escuchar la noticia de que, en la ciudad de David, había nacido un Salvador. ¿De qué formas estaré despierto o despierta en este Adviento? Puede ser que reciba a Cristo de una forma diferente a otros años, con un espíritu de vigilancia y compromiso hacia mi familia y mi comunidad. Jesús, ayúdame a girar mi corazón hacia ti, para que al hacerlo pueda ver con una mirada nueva la búsqueda de la verdad y la justicia que tanto necesitamos en la familia y en la sociedad. ¡Ven, Señor!
